MilesTek®
COMPLETE CONNECTIVITY SOLUTIONS SINCE 1981

Dear Valued Customer,

For the past 30 years, our commitment to quality and service as a connectivity solutions provider has helped MilesTek gain the trust of thousands of engineers and installers all over the world. However, instead of resting on our reputation, MilesTek constantly tries to improve itself by keeping up with industry trends and responding to the feedback we get from customers.

With that, a lot has taken place at MilesTek. Just recently, we received our Certification of Compliance to the more stringent AS9100 Quality Standard, have added a complete offering of over 5,000 RF and Microwave Coaxial products, and launched a totally new website at MilesTek.com

In addition to our traditional Military Avionics offering, we are proud to highlight our new line of RF and Microwave Coaxial products including Connectors, Bulk Cable, and Cable Assemblies. A wide breadth of common RF connector and cable types are included such as BNC, SMA, SMB, SMC, N, TNC, MCX, F, and UHF connectors, and such standard cable types as RG58, RG59, RG174, RG316, RG178 and low loss cables. These products emphasize our goal of bringing a best-in-category solution to the marketplace and matching that quality with the service for which MilesTek is known.

This new full-color 128-page catalog contains a fully updated offering of both new and top selling solutions for the Mil-Aero industry. Product sections include the latest in Coaxial, MIL-STD-1553B, Twinaxial/Triaxial, Racks & Accessories, and Voice & Data. For the very latest product offerings and pricing, please visit us at MilesTek.com

Our customers have come to expect more than just products... they expect answers that will help them solve their installation or project questions. In addition to offering quality products and quick turnaround, our highly trained sales staff has the expertise to provide the technical support you need today.

Technical expertise, customer service and unbeatable value – that's the MilesTek Advantage.
